

Tanana Chiefs Conference, Inc (TCC) WIC Program

Tanana Chiefs Conference, Inc (TCC) was established in 1971 to serve the health interests of Alaska Natives and American Indians residing in Interior Alaska. TCC region occupies an area the size of Texas. It's bounded southerly by the Alaska Range and the Brooks Range northerly, Canada to the East and Yukon River to the West. TCC operates Chief Andrew Isaac Health Center (CAIHC) located in Fairbanks which employs more than 60 health care professionals including the Women, Infants, and Children's (WIC) staff members.

The TCC WIC program serves over 45 rural villages in Interior Alaska and a small percentage of people who live in Fairbanks. The TCC WIC program strives to provide quality as well as provide easy access to all eligible WIC Participants.
